PROPOSALS FOR SHAFTS.

UNITED STATES CAPITOL EXTENSION AND WASHINGTON AQUEDUCT OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, Sept. 50, 1898.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until the fourth day of December next, at noon, for furnishing, on the grounds of the extension of the Capitol, one hundred shafts for the columns of the exterior portices of that building.
The dimensions are as follows:—
One hundred shafts, including the upper torus of the base;
each shaft to be twenty due feet two and one eighth inches in height from the bottom of said torus to the top of the upper astragal.

The diameter of the torus or bottom piece of shaft to be three feet seven and five eighths inches; the diameter of the shaft above the base to be three feet, and at the neck below the capital two feet six and one-eighth inches; and the diameter of the upper astragal to be two feet eleven and seven eighths inches. These are the net dimensions of the work when finished.

All the blocks to be scabbled round to dimensions, and to be free from all defects which would make blemishes in the finished columns.

The above shafts to be of white American marble, similar in color, grain and composition so that used in the exterior of the Capitol extension, which comes from near Lee, Massachusetts.

of the Capitol extension, which comes from near Lee, Massachusetts.

Every proposal should be accompanied with a block at least one cubic foot in size, as a specimen of the marble offered.
This specimen will be submitted to proper chemical and mechanical tests before being accepted for the work.

The proposals should state the time within which the marble will be delivered, and should be accompanied by a written guarante, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bids to accepted, enter into an obligation within ten days, with good and sufficient securities, for the completion of the work undertaken;
said guarantee to be accempanied by the certificate of the United States District Judge, United States District Atorney, Navy Agent, or some officer of the general government or the dividual known to the Engineer or Department of War, that the guarantors are able to make good their guarantee.

The United States reserves the right to report any or all bids
not deemed advantageous, and to make other arrangements
for procuring the marble.

Froposals will be received for furnishing the shafts either in single blocks or in blocks of not less than four feet in length, and the number of shafts offered in single blocks or in pieces, respectively, should be stated.

Proposals will be opened in this office at noon of the 4th December next, in the presence of bidders who may choose to be present.
